n. Payments

Article 3

1. The foundation has the objective of making payments to or for consumers, with regard to package travel agreements, linked travel arrangements or contracts for transport or contracts for accommodation offered and concluded on the Dutch market, if these consumers suffer financial loss in the event the participant cannot or may not (fully) meet its obligations due to a catastrophe or an impending catastrophe.
2. Airline tickets and car rental which are not part of a package are not covered under this guarantee scheme.
3. The payments referred to in paragraph 1 will be made only if and insofar as:
 - a. the agreement has been concluded with a participant in the Calamiteitenfonds;
 - b. the Catastrophe Committee has determined and announced that, for the location where the agreement is to be performed, a situation qualifying for payment (of damages) exists or has existed and the travel, transport or accommodation commenced before the determination was announced;
 - c. the consumer is unable to recover damages from third parties or the participant.

4. The payments referred to in paragraph 1 will not exceed the amount paid for travel, transport or accommodation costs, if applicable increased by the additional costs of repatriation or of the modification of the trip or accommodation. Excluded from compensation are paid insurance premiums and other payments, such as policy fees, visa fees, change fees, fax and telephone costs, administrative costs, credit card fees, deposits and the consumer contribution to the Calamiteitenfonds.
5. If and insofar as entitlement to damages under the above provisions exists, the payment obligation of the Calamiteitenfonds is limited to an amount of twelve thousand and five hundred (€ 12,500) per claim for each traveller. The excess is insured by the Calamiteitenfonds on behalf of the consumer with Europeesche Verzekeringen. In the case of damage, the Calamiteitenfonds will settle the damage with Europeesche Verzekeringen on behalf of the consumer involved, notwithstanding the right of the consumer as insured party to apply directly to Europeesche Verzekeringen for payment.
6. Payments referred to in paragraph 1 are made only in the event the consumer has paid the booking in cash and/or by bank. No payments will be made for bookings made on the basis of lotteries, trading stamps, vouchers, air miles and similar bookings not fully paid with cash or by bank transfer.

Situation qualifying for payment (of damages)

Article 4

1. Whether a situation qualifying for payment (of damages) as referred to in Article 2 point i. exists will be solely assessed by the Catastrophe Committee as referred to in Article 14 of the Articles of Association of the Calamiteitenfonds.
2. The consumer should – on penalty of losing his entitlement to payment – follow the determination and instructions of the Catastrophe Committee. The Calamiteitenfonds will provide notification of this as soon as possible, amongst others through the public media and/or the participant.

Restriction of cover

Article 5

1. Whether a restriction of cover as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 4 of the Articles of Association should be set is solely at the discretion of the Catastrophe Committee as referred to in Article 14 of the Articles of Association of the foundation.
2. After publication of a restriction of cover, both the participant and the consumer to whose booking the restriction of cover applies are entitled to cancel the package travel agreement, contract of transport or contract of accommodation free of charge, in accordance with the provisions on cancellation without charge of the ANVR Travel Terms and Conditions.

The consumer who does not use the option to cancel his contract will no longer be entitled to any payment as referred to in Article 2 of the Articles of Association with respect to such contract.

Damages / payment

Article 7

1. The financial loss of the consumer to be compensated within the meaning of Article 3 paragraph 1 – excluding all other (financial) loss – shall mean:
 - if the trip was cancelled prematurely: the possible additional costs of repatriation and the loss of the travel sum (or a corresponding part of the travel sum if the trip was taken in part);
 - if the trip is continued in modified form: the additional travel costs associated with the change, but only to the extent the modified trip is comparable to the original trip with regard to nature and price.
2. The consumer is only entitled to claim payment by the Calamiteitenfonds if the Calamiteitenfonds, within the limits of its objects and this guarantee scheme, is obliged to make a payment to or for the consumer, taking into account Article 12 and provided that the consumer has complied with the obligations referred to below.
3. The Calamiteitenfonds is not liable for damage of the consumer resulting from a determination or instructions within the meaning of Article 13 of the articles of association.

 1. the invoice;
 2. the related proofs of payment.
5. As long as one of the documents to be submitted and delivered based on the above is missing, the consumer will have no right to payment.

In the event that the Calamiteitenfonds makes payments to or on behalf of the consumer on account of obligations for which, pursuant to the Articles of Association and regulations and/or the booking, the participant is liable towards the consumer, the Calamiteitenfonds will have recourse against the participant and the consumer will cooperate in the assignment to the Calamiteitenfonds of his rights towards the participant to the amount of the aforementioned payments by the Calamiteitenfonds.
2. The consumer is obliged upon request of the Calamiteitenfonds to sign a deed of assignment with respect to the aforementioned rights in accordance with the model determined by the Calamiteitenfonds.
